There is no reference style required by the Graduate College Thesis Office; however, departments may require the use of a reference style that is appropriate to the student’s program of study.